

MONTHLY MEETING
MONDAY, APRIL 5th - 2 PM

On the agenda.....

--Director

--Associates' Show

--Committee Updates

AT THE MARCH MEETING

With a good representation of the membership, our March meeting was larger, by far, than the first trial monthly turnout back two long years ago. We reviewed our standing committees' requirements-for-survival. We have a goal of 100% participation by the artist membership and the continued assistance of our many Associates. With the mood of the meeting, Posting Chairman Betty Kusche gathered a group of volunteers for getting out the '93 Associate letter. Cara Schwartz will be working on grant applications. ALSO TO NOTE.....Ann Moran eloquently presented the value of the distribution of power to insure that the Association belongs to and benefits all.

WELCOME, LINDA

After an encouraging response to our quest for a Director, Linda Legassie has agreed to work with us on a part-time basis. We have made a giant step forward..... compromising only in the necessary reduction of the size of the role.

Mrs. Legassie has an impressive background of five years with the Florence Griswold Museum working in all phases of their programs. With degrees in Art and Anthropology, she brings skills ranging from these areas to experience and expertise in business. Her familiarity with the LAA goes back a few years and comes as an advantage for us. We're looking forward to the benefit of her coordination abilities to our exhibition and program efforts.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS SHOW

Coming up in May is our second Annual Associate Members' Show with Lida Fry and Rachel Armstrong in charge. For this show only, we will be accepting fine art photography again this year. Although there is no jury and no entry fee, dues must be paid up.

Please save the information sheet on Page 3 attached.

IT MUST BE SPRING!!!!

I have a friend who is seeking friends of and information about GERTRUDE WHITING. Gertrude Whiting was a wellknown artist in the Lyme-Old Lyme area.....and an art teacher. Former students need this information for their school's 100th anniversary. Please call.....LIDA FRY, 464-0289.

ASKING AGAIN

The PR committee is still looking for information from all artist members about their art related activities for the benefit of their communities over the past few years. WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN DOING?.....working in schools, churches, service organizations....with demonstrations and lectures, posters , programs or displays, etc.?

A number of responses have been received to date. Hopefully, there will be many more to come. Write up your list today and bring it along to the meeting in April.....or send it to L. Alexander or E.B.Atwood % LAA, P.O.Box 222, OL, 06371.

Everyone should be sure to enjoy the delightful show currently on view in the gallery and weekends through the month of March. It is presented by the Connecticut Art Education Society and has been selected from the work of children K thru 12th grade statewide. The exhibition is charmingly full of the line and color and unique perception of young artists. Shirley Frost was the organizer.

DORIS SHAW MEMORIAL

The Doris Shaw Memorial Library has been set up in the Goodman Gallery with comfortable furniture. There are books and magazines for browsing or more serious art research.

This is an ongoing project and any help would be greatly appreciated. If you have an art book that you would like to give us, please write your name inside the cover so that even far into the future people will know of your interest and support. As time goes on we will need more book shelves. Memorial donations will be used to expand this facility.

When our doors open during the Spring and Summer season, you are welcome to stop by for a relaxing, peaceful visit to the pleasant atmosphere of the Goodman Gallery.

ARTISTS AT WORK

Opening with a reception on April 7th, THE CARIBBEAN and OTHER WORKS is a new exhibition by JANICE DIBATTISTA at the Hoxie Gallery, Westerly Library in Westerly, RI. The show will continue until the 28th of April.....Look for AL VETROMILE and his western indian paintings in the April issue of DISCOVER CONNECTICUT.....In addition, two of his aeronautical paintings have been selected by the Society of Illustrators as part of a group to be presented to the US Air Force in Washington, DC on April 16th.....Until the 31st of March, sculpture by NORMAN LEGASSIE and landscape paintings by CHARLES TURNBULL will be on view at the Scranton Memorial Library in Madison.

1993 ASSOCIATE MEMBERS' SHOW
LYME ART ASSOCIATION
SATURDAY, MAY 8 thru MONDAY, MAY 31

This Second Annual Members' Show is a thank-you for the wonderful things Associate members have done for the Gallery over the years. How we survive and if we thrive depends upon such help.

Associate members may submit two peices of original work in oil, watercolor, acrylic, pastel, hand-pulled print, drawing, small sculpture or (as a special section of this show only) fine art photography. The show is unjuried with no entry fee.....but dues must be paid up.

Work must be framed and ready for hanging. The committee will hang as many as possible.....but does not promise to hang all.

As a non-profit gallery, the LYME ART ASSOCIATION cannot assume the role of sales agent. All sales will be the responsibility of the artist for payment of taxes required by the state. A 30% donation from sales will benefit the maintenance of the gallery.

Every care will taken in handling work submitted for exhibition. The Association will not be responsible for any loss or damage, no matter how same shall be caused. The entering of work in the exhibition assumes the acceptance of these conditions.
